The Entrance to the Cataeombs is not more forbid ling than a mouth dismanufed of teeth. This disligarement is, in most instances, the consequences of a want of attention to them in youth, but is happily proventible, with Sozofout need, as a stung speaker once neged his stailers to vote, "cerly and often." This staple article is a thoroughly reliable means of rendering the teeth ornamental and serviceable. The press and medical profession Indozse it.
